

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Robert Lee Nystrom is a native of South Dakota--born in Pierre, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Bob Nystrom started working for the South Dakota Department of Transportation in 1950 in the Plans Office before leaving to serve his country in the service and then attending college; and,

WHEREAS, In 1959, Bob returned to the Department of Transportation and was employed continuously as an engineering assistant, project manager, project engineer, program engineer, and finally engineering supervisor; and,

WHEREAS, Bob has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, In 1984, after 29 years of service to the South Dakota National Guard, Bob retired at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel; and,

WHEREAS, Bob is a devoted husband to his wife, Evie, and a good father to their two children, Brad and Debra; and,

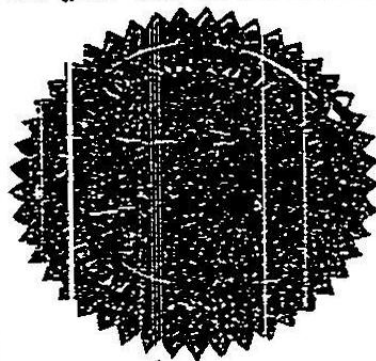

WHEREAS, On March 16, after almost 33 years of service to the Department of Transportation and this great state, Bob is retiring; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 16, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends, co-workers and relatives in wishing him good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Seventh Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety
